RULE 6. CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

(A) Passenger Conduct and Refusal To Transport

In this Rule,

“Responsible employee” means operational personnel of the Carrier, and includes all persons whose duties may require that they interact with a person on board or about to board an aircraft, and includes crew members, gate and check-in staff and their direct supervisors. This includes baggage handlers and ramp attendants.

“Risk to flight operations” means conduct by a person that poses a risk to the physical comfort or safety of the person, other Passengers, or the Carrier’s employees; the safety of the aircraft; the unhindered performance of the crew members in their duty aboard the aircraft; or safe and adequate flight operations.

“Prohibited conduct” means conduct that, in the reasonable judgment of a responsible employee, poses a risk to flight operations, regardless of when or where the conduct takes place. Prohibited conduct includes, but is not limited to, situations where:

- a) the Passenger, in the reasonable judgment of a responsible employee, is under significant impairment arising from intoxicating liquors or drugs (except medical patient under proper care);

- b) the Passenger's conduct is or has been known to be abusive, offensive, threatening, intimidating, violent, or otherwise disorderly;
- c) the Passenger's conduct involves any unusual hazard or risk to self or to other persons (including, in case of pregnant passengers, unborn children) or to property;
- d) the Passenger does not follow the instructions of the Carrier or its employees, including instructions to cease prohibited conduct;
- e) the Passenger is unable or unwilling to sit in his or her assigned seat with the seatbelt fastened;
- f) the Passenger smokes or attempts to smoke in the aircraft;
- g) the Passenger uses or continues to use a cellular telephone, a laptop computer or an electronic device on board the aircraft after being advised to cease such use by a member of the crew;
- h) the Passenger is wearing or has on or about their person concealed or unconcealed deadly or dangerous weapons; provided, however, that the Carrier will carry passengers who are properly authorized to carry such items;
- i) the Passenger has resisted or may reasonably be believed to be capable or resisting escorts;
- j) the Passenger has made an unauthorized intrusion or an attempted unauthorized intrusion on to the flight deck of the aircraft or any restricted area;
- k) the Passenger has tampered with or wilfully damaged the aircraft, its equipment or other property of the Carrier; or
- l) the Passenger has engaged in any criminal activity.

Where, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, a responsible employee decides that a Passenger has engaged in prohibited conduct, the responsible employee may impose any combination of the following sanctions:

- (i) Written or verbal warning;
- (ii) Refusal to permit boarding of an aircraft;
- (iii) Removal of the passenger at any point;

For explanation of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see Page 4.

In addition to the above sanctions imposed by a responsible employee, the Carrier may impose the following sanctions where appropriate:

- (iv) Probation. The Carrier may stipulate that the Passenger is to undertake, in writing, to follow certain probationary conditions, such as to not engage in prohibited conduct, in order for the Carrier to provide transport to said passenger. Such probationary conditions may be imposed for any length of time, which, in the exercise of the Carrier's reasonable discretion, is necessary to ensure the Passenger's continued compliance in continued avoidance of prohibited conduct, but which will in most circumstances last for one year; and
- (v) Refusal to transport the Passenger for a set period of time. The length of the ban will be set by the Carrier in its reasonable discretion, and will be for a period commensurate with the nature of the prohibited conduct.
- (vi) Refusal to transport the Passenger indefinitely. When an indefinite ban is imposed by the Carrier, it will extend until the Carrier is satisfied, acting reasonably, that the Passenger no longer constitutes a threat to the safety of other Passengers, crew or the aircraft or equipment, or to the comfort of the other Passengers or crew; the unhindered performance of the crew members in their duty aboard the aircraft; or safe and adequate flight operations.

The following conduct will automatically result in an indefinite ban:

- (a) the Passenger continued to interfere with the performance of a crew member's duties notwithstanding verbal warnings by the crew to stop such behaviour;
- (b) the Passenger injures or subjects to a credible threat of injury themselves, a crew member or another Passenger;
- (c) the Passenger has engaged in the conduct that required an unscheduled landing and/or the use of restraints such as ties or handcuffs;
- (d) the Passenger repeats a prohibited conduct after receiving a notice of probation as mentioned above; or
- (e) any other conduct that in the reasonable judgment of the Carrier poses a sufficient risk to flight operations as to justify an indefinite ban.

Carrier's liability in case of refusal to carry a Passenger for a specific flight or removal of a Passenger en route for any reason specified in the foregoing paragraphs shall be limited to the recovery of the refund value or the unused portion of the Passenger's ticket from the Carrier so refusing or removing.

A person who is refused carriage for an indefinite period of time or to whom a probation notice is served may provide to the Carrier, in writing, the reasons why he/she no longer poses a threat to the safety or comfort of passengers or crew, or to the safety of the aircraft. Such document may be sent to the address provided in the refusal to carry notice or the notice of probation. The Carrier's will respond to the passenger within a reasonable period of time providing Carrier's assessment as to whether or not the Carrier will prolong the ban or to maintain the probation period.
